

SAMED Core Members

1. Regularly attend and participate in monthly meetings focused on events in the Middle East.
2. Occasionally issue as op-ed pieces or letters to the editor consensus statements relating to the Middle East and based on SAMED discussions.
3. Convey consensus views on U.S. policy relating to the Middle East to government representatives and other policy makers.
4. Occasionally make presentations about U.S. policies and the Middle East in a variety of fora: churches, synagogues, Thursday Morning Roundtable, among others.
5. Provide information and resources about the Middle East and about the dialogue experience to teachers, students, International visitors and the community at large.
6. Sponsor, organize and/or assist with public events relating to the Middle East:
 - "Peace is a Paintbrush" Exhibit (2009)
 - Presentations by Neve Shalom/Wahat Al-Salam/The Oasis of Peace (2008 and other years)
 - Yoel Ben-Simhon and the Sultana Ensemble (2005)
 - Rabbi Arik Ascherman of Rabbis for Human Rights (2003)
 - Human Rights and Peace in the Middle East, international conference organized by Richard D. Schwartz and sponsored by Syracuse University College of Law (1987)

Yes! Please add my name to Friends of SAMEDI

Name _____ Last _____ First _____ Middle Initial _____ Title _____

Address _____ Street/Apartment _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____

E-mail _____ Phone: Land line _____ Cell _____

Please return to the display table! Thanks!

Syracuse Area
Middle East
Dialog

סלום

PEACE

سلام

Promoting a peaceful solution to the conflict in the Middle East
locally, nationally, and internationally since 1981